Top Stories of Room 501

What's Happening in Room 501?

We are working harder than ever! Not only are we learning new "stuff" we are also reviewing for the upcoming MAP test. In ELA, we are working on reading to find characters, settings, and plot of stories we are reading and in ones that we have written on our own. In writing, we are working on writing

As we ready for the MAP test our students are still roaring. They are turning in assignments and joining in discussions. I think a fiction story.

Math has been going very well lately. We have been working with polygons and how they can really be specific. Ask your student if a rhombus is always a square or if a square is always a rhombus?

We have been reviewing in Science due the MAP Testing. Science is a very important part of our test

In social studies, we will be working on the American Revolution and its effects on colonists, the British as well as Native Americans, slaves, and women.

Hear Us Roar!

they are ready to beat this test. Remember to encourage them to work hard, to read and re-read the directions and to check their answer. We want to hear them

Testing

Things to remember:

1. Our testing dates start April 16th through May 11th.
2. Make sure your student is getting enough sleep and eating a good breakfast either at home or at school.
3. Ask your student about their test and how their day went and reassure them that all we want is for them to do their best.
