

Carter's Class Newsletter 3/23/18

Happy Thursday! We hope you had a great week~ We had a great week here at school!

Comm.Arts: We are doing a lot of reviewing of reading skills and we are working on our end of the year reading assessments. We worked with Easter words in Spelling this week. Congratulations to all the 100%'s on the test last week!!

Math: We are still on topic 16 which is over Geometry~ students learned how to draw and measure angles using a protractor! We will have a test next Friday over topic 16.

Science- We are still learning about Force and Motion in Science.

* *Fourth Grade MAP testing will start in April. Our class will be testing April 19th and 20th and April 23rd- 25th.

*Fourth Graders will attend "Bump City" in Blue Springs on Monday, May 14th. We will send permission slips home mid-April with all the details. There will be no cost to attend this field trip thanks to our wonderful PTO!

*Congratulations to Brady from our class! He read 19 ½ books this month for the OUE Reading Challenge! April is our last month for the challenge ~ Students must read at least 7 books to earn the incentives which includes a free chapter book. ☺

*Please continue to communicate with your child what their transportation arrangements will be if there is a change. Please make sure you write a note in your child's planner or give the office staff a call with any changes. You have done a great job this year with this!!!

*No school Friday, March 30th.

*April 2nd, 3rd and 13th are all snow make-up days.

*Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns about school or your child.

Have a great Easter weekend! Mrs. Carter
