

Newsletter
Friday, March 2, 2018

Reading: We will be back in our guided reading groups. We are going to be reading and answering questions using a fiction text A Place for Hummingbirds. We will also be discussing and doing activities with cause and effect.

Writing: We will begin our unit on opinion writing. We will begin talking about what is an opinion and do some small writings to get us started. On Friday they will decide and write about which makes a better pet a cat or a dog.

Spelling: Next week pattern is double consonant r, n, p, d, l, and t.

Math: We will begin doing math twice a day. During regular math they are going to be learning about area and how to find area of a shape. During the second math time we are going to be working with telling time and elapse time. Elapse time is kind of difficult for some of them.

Celebrating Bulldog Cheer Winners

Hard Worker	Miles Harget
High Academics	Atticus Gassen
Golden Rule	Kylie Gibbson
Cool Kid	Alexis Clemens

to everyone who was able to come to the ecosystem night. The kiddos did a lot of hard work getting ready for this night. We will have it up the rest of next week if you are able to drop by and see it.

Have a great weekend!!!!