

Mrs. Stark's March News

Reading: The students will apply post-reading skills to demonstrate comprehension of text, focusing on summarizing the story. We will apply strategies during reading to self-monitor comprehension, question the text, and visualize what we read. Don't forget to read at home.

Writing: We are going to be writing informational text and opinion writing.

Math: We will continue working on perimeter and area. Then we will complete data. We will continue working on multiplication to increase fluency.
