Welcome to Kindergarten!

Reading

We will be learning the poem Baby Farm Animals this week. We will read the big book Who Will Be My Mother. We will be working on short -i chunk words (ill, ip, ig, in, it). We will continue to study the author Mo Willems.

As always, Reading Club bags are to come home with books and folders to be signed daily. I hope you enjoyed reading Escape from Mr. Lemoncello's Library!

Writing

This week we are going to continue our Unit on Opinion writing. In this unit, the students will learn to state their opinion about a topic and give three reasons why they feel the way they do. We will also work on Revising and Editing our work.

Math

We will finish our study on composing and decomposing teen numbers using a ten frame. Then we will move onto #'s to 100.

Content

We will begin our animal unit. We will learn about baby animals and classification of animals.

Student of the Month

March

Eli is our March student of the month for optimism. Teachers were looking for students that were able to find the best in any situation rather than focusing on the worst. Optimistic students also have
