Kindergarten Classes

Kindergarten classes will be reading lots of Christmas adventures with some familiar characters. We are going to see how Turkey wants to play the role of Santa in Turkey Clause and Froggy's friends wake him so he can have his first Christmas. Our Elf friend wants to enter Santa's Christmas Selfie Contest. We will discover how many sleeps it take to get to Christmas. We are now using shelf markers.

First Grade Classes

First grade classes are finding out how Santa find his laugh in the book How Santa Lost Ho Ho Ho. It is never good when Santa can't laugh. Our friend Gilbert is back in Jingle Bells Homework Smells. Gilbert forget to do his homework because he is so excited about Christmas break.

Second Grade Classes

Second grade classes are reading Memoir of a Hamster. Seymour loves his yogurt drops. When Pearl, the cat, tells him the sun room is filled with yogurt drops, Seymour plans an escape from his cage. Guess what? Pearl is a "big, fat liar". Our Christmas fun is Memoirs of an Elf. Spark, the elf, and Santa are ready for the big night. They take an "Elfie" to get the night started. Santa gives away toys. He doesn't take things. One adventurous puppy, Tugboat, hides in Santa's sack and makes it back to the North Pole. Santa and Spark have to figure out how to get Tugboat home.

"Then the Grinch thought of something he hadn't before! What if Christmas, he thought, doesn't come from a store. What if Christmas...perhaps...means a little bit more!"

— Dr. Seuss, How the Grinch Stole Christmas!
