2. Ensure that the completed application and required information are at Ray-Carroll's main office in Richmond by Wednesday, February 16, 2022.
3. Complete the application form in ink or with a typewriter or computer and sign it.
4. Write a personal information essay that covers the points listed below:
 - The vocation or profession you plan to pursue.
 - Why you have made this choice.
 - Why you desire to attend college or take vocational training.
 - The influence that you expect college or vocational training to have on your life.
 - How much education/training you plan to pursue.
 - How much of the cost you and your parents will be able to meet.
 - What high school has meant to you.
 - School, community and church activities.
 - Any other information you desire to present including unusual family or financial situations.
5. Ask three or more teachers or other individuals who have had you in class or activities to write a letter of recommendation for you. These letters should be given to the counselor, not handed to you. It will be your responsibility to choose an individual who knows you well and is able to write a knowledgeable letter about you and your abilities. Please check with these individuals before the scholarship deadline to ensure that the letters have been completed and delivered to the counselor.
6. Remind the counselor that he/she needs to include a copy of your seven-semester transcript along with a notation of your class rank and number of students in your graduating class, current grade point average, and ACT score.
7. Finish all materials in time for your complete application to be at the Richmond office by Wednesday, February 16, 2022.

We are pleased that you are taking advantage of this opportunity. The Ray-Carroll County Grain Growers Scholarship Fund is eager to award these scholarships to deserving students who might not otherwise receive such aid.

Sincerely,
